SEDYANKA”

(SEWING BEE)

“Sedyanka” – it is a very old Bulgarian custom in the past. In the autumn, after the end of the hard work in the field, came the time of “Sedyanka”. The young people expected it with impatience.

When the nights became long and the housework was endless, people gathered and help each other. They sang songs, danced, told stories, riddles and they laughed a lot.

“Sedyanka” as the horo was a place, where people communicated, took to each other, arranged engagements. The most impatient people were the unmarried.

The announcement of the place of the “Sedyanka” was made early in the morning at the fountain, where the girls went for fill water.

The action is laid in the house of Boryana – the girl who makes the “Sedyanka” to introduce to her parents her sweetheart Boril.

Boril is a young bachelor who comes with his friends to the “Sedyanka” with the sole purpose of proposing marriage to Boryana.

In the reproduce of “Sedyanka” there are many songs, dances and humor. Here take part students from the module “Performing Arts”, choreography classes and from the vocal group.
